The M&M Theatre company came into school on Monday to entertain the children with their wonderful production of Peter Pan. The children thoroughly enjoyed this live theatre experience. If you haven't yet sent in the payment, please do so as soon as possible. Many Thanks

Year 1 Walk

The children in Y1 went on a local walk this week to enhance their learning about "Our Local Area" They learned a great deal about the styles and features of buildings and about the local wildlife. The weather was a bit rainy, but this didn't dampen their enthusiasm. The staff and locals were delighted by the children's exemplary behaviour. Well done Y1.

J4 Class Assembly

J4 presented their class assembly yesterday, which was a wonderful experience for everyone who saw it. The topic of the assembly was community and the children reminded us how to live supportively and respectfully in a caring community. I would like us all to take this message into our everyday lives and remind everyone – children and parents- to speak respectfully to each other, around school, at all times.
